A Million Excuses – (10 Min.)

This all new video, although humorous, delivers hard-hitting impact for all employees. The program examines the million excuses offered by employees for not following established safety policies and procedures, not wearing Personal Protective Equipment and for not using common sense on the job. When employee’s see the excuses in this program, it may cause them to examine some of their own attitudes which may be unsafe.