Wage & Hour Training California – Supervisor Version

Course Description

This course is designed to help supervisors, managers, and executives understand how wage and hour issues actually arise in real workplaces, what the law requires, and how to manage people in a way that protects both employees and the organization.