How to Become a Property Manager in 5 Steps

Step #1

Research the Laws

Laws for property managers and real estate property vary by location, so research, research, research!

Step #2

Get the Proper Education

Having the proper education, like a BA or an MA in business administration or financing, is a good start. You can take a real estate course as well.

Step #3

Get Certified

Certifications may be required by law, or they may help you land clients. A few to look into include NALP, CAM, CPM, and MPM.

Step #4

Find Your First Client

Market yourself and spread the word! Set up a website, advertise on social media, and network with real estate professionals to find property owners.

Step #5

Stay Updated and Keep Learning

Stay up to date on market trends and property management practices to ensure you offer the best services to your clients.
