Recordkeeping Infographic

Download this printable Infographic on Recordkeeping

INJURY REPORTING

January 1, 2015

Report all work-related FATALITIES and inpatient HOSPITALIZATIONS of

January 1, 2015

Report work-related FATALITIES to OSHA

ort all AMPUTATIONS, in PITALIZATIONS of 1 or r ployees, and EYE LOSS dents within 24 hours

REPORTING OPTIONS

CALL or VISIT your OSHA area office. (A) AMEN OFFICE

CALL OSHA's toll-free number at 1-800-321-OSHA (6742).

COMING SOON: Report online at https://www.osha.gov/report_online/index.html.

RECORDKEEPING EXEMPTIONS

January 1, 2015

Employers in certain low-hazard industries designated by SIC Codes are not required to keep injury and illness records unless specifically asked to by OSHA, the Bureau of Labor Statistics, or acorthar architectured welf

January 1, 2015

Updated list of partially exempt industries, designated by NAICS Code.

Check out the updated list:

http://ow.ly/C82ps

BOTH

Any employer (regardless of industry) that employed 10 or fewer employees at all times during the previous calendar year is exempt from the requirement to routinely maintain injury and illness records (OSHA 300 Logs).

ALL EMPLOYERS must report fatalities and the other serious injuries listed above to OSHA, regardless of company size or industry exemption.