

Working at Heights for Roofers

Course Description

Ensuring worker safety requires a combination of knowledge, training, and the proper use of protective equipment. This course covers essential topics related to working from heights, including scaffolding, aerial lifts, fall protection, and rescue procedures for suspended workers.